

7.1 OFFICIAL INDICIA

The MU Extension indicia is our official sign or mark that identifies origination and ownership of a publication. It combines our logo with statements of extension's creation, cooperation and EEO policy. It is required on all MU Extension publications — guides, manuals, fact sheets and curricula.

FULL INDICIA

Issued in furtherance of the Cooperative Extension Work Acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Director, Cooperative Extension, University of Missouri, Columbia, MO 65211 • MU Extension provides equal opportunity to all participants in extension programs and activities and for all employees and applicants for employment on the basis of their demonstrated ability and competence without discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, genetic information, disability or protected veteran status. • 573-882-7216 • extension.missouri.edu

The abbreviated indicia should be used where space is limited and the full indicia will not fit. It can be used on the bottom back cover of a publication.

SIGNATURE WITH EEO/ADA STATEMENT

The signature with the EEO/ADA statement should be used where space is limited and neither the full nor abbreviated indicia will fit, i.e., brochures, posters, fliers, PowerPoint slides, etc. It is appropriate for marketing and promotional materials. Do not construct your own indicias.

NOTE: The MU Extension signature that is used on the cover or first page of a publication or promotional piece should NOT have the EEO/ADA statement.

The signature that appears at the end of a publication or promotional piece, should have the EEO/ADA statement.
